Our clients always come first

We provide comprehensive advice, with an innovative approach and commercial focus targeted at adding value.

We stand out for our responsive and collaborative work, partner-involvement and a team of dynamic and committed associates.

Our Practice

We are market leaders in the energy sector. We provide legal advice on the most diverse and complex matters in connection with the energy value chain, such as:

- Project development to support achievement of ready-to-bid or ready-to-build status, including but not limited to: land agreements and compliance with regulations (environmental matters), easements, permitting, resource assessment and audit, and environmental matters.
- Public and private tendering (RfQ and/or RfP).
- Legal due diligence of energy projects, assets and companies acting on behalf of sponsors, lenders, investors, off-takers buyers and/or sellers.
- Regulatory bankability advice and support in financial transactions including, but not limited to: project finance, corporate finance, acquisition finance transactions, bond issuance, and in other transactional and innovative matters.
- Regulatory advice in M&A transactions with an energy focus or angle.
